NiWest continues to negotiate mining lease applications at its Waite Kauri project through the native title tribunal.

During the quarter a Voluntary Administrator and subsequently a Receiver was appointed to Western Metals Copper Limited, the majority and co-shareholder with the company, in Niwest Limited. This action constituted a default under the Niwest Shareholders Deed and gave rise to a Default Purchase Option whereby the company had the option to acquire the Niwest holding of Western Metals Copper for an agreed value or failing agreement an independently determined value. The company did not exercise its option to acquire the Niwest holding of Western Metals Copper and whilst an offer was made to Western Metals Copper for its interest in Niwest, it was not accepted. At this point in time negotiations are continuing between the parties.

GME has a number of rights under the NiWest Shareholders Deed it has with Western Metals Copper, including pre emptive rights to purchase that company's holding in NiWest. It will examine all opportunities that arise to acquire full ownership of NiWest.
